Language Coach Activities in the Work Community

Co-funded by the European Union

1

Identify the needs

What kinds of language support needs are there in the work community? What do you want to develop and why?

Goal: A shared understanding of where language support is needed and why.

2

Commit together

Why is this important?

Goal: A shared will and permission to act.

3

Appoint language coaches

Who could act as a language coach in the work community?

Goal: An appointed language coach or language coach team.

4

Agree on goals and support

How does the language coach offer concrete support for the language learner at work?

Goal: A shared goal for learning and the means through which the goal is achieved.

5

Learn and develop together

What do you learn and how do you develop the activity together?

Goal: The activity develops and becomes part of the everyday life in the work community.

Implemented as part of the Diverse Working Life in Lapland group project, co-funded by the European Union.
